Bill Candy and the South Bay Boys

'Bill Candy and the South Bay Boys'

Bill Candy ~ Guitar/Vocals

Bill has been playing, singing, writing and recording over 30 years and has 2 CD's to his credit. Bill's group, "Edward, Harding & McLean became a well known name at the CBC through the 80's. Bill is a long time Haliburton Lake cottager.

Wendell Ferguson ~ Guitar/Vocals

Wendell has won the Canadian Country Music Association's 'Guitar Player of the Year' award six years running. He is in high demand as a session player and producer.

Song writing and a unique brand of humour have brought him to the stage lights of CBC.

Roly Platt ~ Harmonica/Vocals

Roly is awesome - hear only 30 seconds of his harmonica and say no more! Well-known across Canada for his talent, Roly has played in countless film scores, jingles and played back up for various recording artists. He has also toured with Ronnie Hawkins and Matt Minglewood.

Gene Falbo ~ Bass/Vocals

From Sudbury, Ontario ~ Gene got his start in the 60's with the popular band Jackson Hawke and toured Canada.

He along with band mate, Bob DiSalle were the rhythm section of Bill Candy's band for 20 years.

Bob DiSalle ~ Drums/Vocals

Also from Sudbury, Ontario ~ Bob is a freelance drummer with versatile style. Bob toured 5 years with Bruce Cockburn and recently concluded 14 years as the drummer for Roger Whittaker. Now you will find him in an orchestra pit in Toronto's theatre district, or teaching or playing in gigs around the city.

Band Members have C.D.'s available for purchase.
